TITANS OF THE CLIMATE

Explaining Policy Process in the United States and China

Prof. Gallagher, and co-author Xiaowei Xuan, examine how the planet's two largest greenhouse gas emitters develop and implement climate policy. Both Gallagher and Xuan aim to help readers understand the challenges, constraints, and opportunities in each country.

KELLY SIMS GALLAGHER is Professor of Energy and Environmental Policy. From June 2014-September 2015 she served in the Obama Administration as a Senior Policy Advisor in the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy, and as Senior China Advisor in the Special Envoy for Climate Change office at the U.S. State Department.

XIAOWEI XUAN is Senior Research Fellow in the Department of Development Strategy and Regional Economy at the Development Research Center of the State Council of the People's Republic of China.
