

A Conversation on Cryptography with Jim Baker & Susan Landau

- Moderator: Josephine Wolff, Assistant Professor of Cybersecurity Policy, Fletcher School

- Date: February 12, 2020

- Time: 5:30 pm-7:00 pm

- Location: Fletcher School, Room TBD

- Attendance Policy: Open to members of the Tufts Community

- RSVP: Email joshua.anderson@tufts.edu

Jim Baker is the Director of National Security and Cybersecurity at the R Street Institute, a CNN legal analyst, and a lecturer on law at Harvard Law School. He is also the former general counsel of the FBI. The views expressed in this talk are his own and do not necessarily reflect those of his current or former employers.

Susan Landau is the Bridge Professor in Cyber Security and Policy. She works at the intersection of cybersecurity, national security, law, and policy. She has testified before Congress, written for the Washington Post, Science, and Scientific American, and frequently appears on NPR and BBC.

Light refreshments will be provided. This event will be co-sponsored by the Tufts University Cybersecurity & Public Policy Program & the Hitachi Center for Technology and International Affairs, and is part of the Hitachi Center for Technology & International Affairs Speaker Series.