

ASIAN AMERICANS ARE POLITICAL

Asians are ignored by our political parties

only 8%

of Asian Americans were contacted frequently by the Republican party in 2020¹

46%

of Asian Americans in 2020 do not feel close to either party¹

only 12%

of Asian Americans were contacted frequently by the Democratic Party in 2020¹

54%

of Asian Americans in 2016 believed politicians did not care about what people like them thought²

But Asians have a vote

Between 2000 and 2020, the Asian eligible voter population grew by 139%

making Asians the fastest growing racial or ethnic group in the U.S. electorate⁴

Asians want to vote

59%

of Asian eligible voters voted in 2020⁵

53%

of Asian registered voters were more enthusiastic to vote in 2020
than previous years¹

In presidential battleground states,

751,778

AAPI voters turned out in 2016

911,393

AAPI voters turned out in 2020⁶

And Asian votes can be decisive

In 2020, Asian voters flipped Georgia's historically Republican CD-07 District in favor of Democrat Carolyn Bourdeaux⁷

150%

of Bourdeaux's winning margin was Asian.
The number of votes she received from Asians far exceeded the number of votes she won by

2/5

of the CD-07 Asian American voters were first-time voters

Data suggests Asians were also essential to Biden's 2020 victory in Georgia

In 2020, Biden won Georgia by a margin of 12,670

votes⁸

More than 185,000

Asian American and Pacific Islanders in Georgia voted in the 2020 presidential election⁹

Asian voters in 2020
supported Biden over Trump⁶
