

Webinar Series

Register here: bit.ly/learnwithect

ScratchJr at Home

12:00 - 1:00 PM EST

Tips and activities for using ScratchJr at home.

ABC's of STEAM

2:00 - 3:00 PM EST

Tips and resources for early childhood steam activities at home.

KIBO at Home

1:00 - 2:00 PM EST

Tips and activities for using KIBO at home.

How to Talk to Your Kids Without Giving Them the Answer

1:00 - 2:00 PM EST

Discussion, activities, and resources for adults to encourage creative thinking and problem solving.

Unplugged Activities

1:00 - 2:00 PM EST

Resources for activities that do not require electronic technology.

Makerspaces

1:00 - 2:00 PM EST

Resources and suggestions for creating an at home makerspace.

Round Table

1:00 - 2:00 PM EST

A discussion to address questions related to early childhood technology.

The Tufts Early Childhood Technology (ECT) certificate program is designed for educators and practitioners working with young children in pre-kindergarten through second grade in diverse educational settings such as schools, museums, libraries, and daycares. The program will develop students' knowledge and skills in technology and engineering with a focus on early childhood.