Program

Mississippi Teacher Corps (MTC) is an alternative-route graduate program at the University of Mississippi that prepares participants to be classroom teachers (grades 7-12).

Participants are placed in Mississippi public schools that are experiencing a teacher shortage.

Benefits

- Full Scholarship for a Masters of Arts in Teaching from the University of Mississippi (covers all tuition, books and fees)
- Job placement in a Mississippi public school with full salary and benefits from the school district
- Free on-campus housing during the summer training program
- Mentoring and support from the MTC administration, second-year teachers and alumni
