

Shareholder Advocacy Intern

JOB DESCRIPTION

Working closely with Green Century's shareholder advocacy team, the intern(s) will be responsible for researching how climate change and environmental issues affect a broad range of industry sectors, will help develop the business case for environmentally sustainable practices, and will help profile companies that are leaders in clean energy and environmental sustainability. Specific issues may include but may not be limited to: renewable energy procurement, greenhouse gas emission reduction, climate change, deforestation and cross commodity supply chains, and sustainable farming and seafood.

Through this experience, intern(s) will be exposed to sustainability challenges in a variety of industries, learn how to benchmark corporate practices, and develop strong research and presentation skills. Intern(s) will also be exposed to the burgeoning field of environmentally and socially responsible investing, including the linkages between corporate sustainability and performance and fossil fuel divestment strategies.

Specific responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Assist shareholder advocacy staff in preparing for corporate environmental campaigns
- Research and analyze areas of environmental risk facing various industries in order to identify those companies most at risk
- Draft compelling, concise business cases for environmentally responsible business practices at specific companies for use in shareholder resolutions
- Assist in the shareholder resolution filing process

QUALIFICATIONS

- A demonstrated commitment to environmental issues, and an interest in environmentally responsible business practices
- Excellent research and writing skills
- Strong verbal communication skills
- An ability to work both as part of a team as well as deliver independent projects

HOURS

The position will require a minimum of 10 hours per week, up to 20 hours per week. Office hours are 9:00am to 6:00pm and the intern must complete the work within that time frame and on a regular schedule. Days are flexible depending on student schedule and program needs.

Internships run for 12 weeks between January and May in the spring, May and August in the summer, and September and December in the fall.

COMPENSATION

The position is compensated through the MassCEC Internship Program for those who qualify.

DESCRIPTION OF ORGANIZATION
