

International Trade Law
30 April 2018
Prof. Joel P. Trachtman

This course is divided into six 90-minute sessions, as follows. Readings are derived from Michael Trebilcock, Advanced Introduction to International Trade Law (2015), as well as the WTO treaties available at the WTO website. You need not read the treaties listed below word-for-word, but glance through them and try to identify their major provisions.

1. Introduction to the WTO and to International Trade Law
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapters 1-2.
 - b. The Purpose of International Trade Law.
 - c. The Uruguay Round and the Creation of the WTO
 - d. Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization
2. Discrimination in International Trade Law: Most Favored Nation Treatment and Regionalism
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapters 3-4.
 - b. GATT 1994, Articles I, XXIV.
3. Discrimination and Domestic Regulation in International Trade Law
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapter 5.
 - b. GATT 1994 Article III.
4. Regulatory Coherence in International Trade Law: Technical Barriers to Trade and the Role of Science
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapter 13.
 - b. WTO Agreement on Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures
5. Trade and Other Values: Health and Environmental Protection
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapters 14-15.
 - b. GATT 1994 Article XX.
6. Contingent Protectionism: Anti-Dumping Duties and Subsidies
 - a. Trebilcock, Chapters 6-7.
 - b. WTO Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures