

2024 Tufts Food Systems Symposium

Learning from Food Waste

Friday, April 5 10 am-2 pm
Breed Memorial Hall
51 Winthrop St, Medford MA

Open to all but space is limited. Reserve at sites.tufts.edu/foodattufts or with QR code.

PROGRAM

10 am

Welcome

Dano Weisbord,
Chief Sustainability Office
+ Executive Director of Campus Planning

10:30 am

Panel discussion with invited participants from the FIRST Resource Center, Facilities &

Campus Services, Neighborhood Produce
Tufts Food Rescue, and others

11:30 am

Keynote address by Guy Schaffer

Author of Composting Utopia: Experimental Infrastructures for Organic Recycling in New York City

12:15 pm

Lunch by Tufts Dining

1-2 pm

Information tables and interactive activities

Take a fresh look at a familiar problem.

The symposium has received generous support from the Environmental Studies Program; Agriculture, Food and Environment Program at the Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy; Anthropology Department; Office of Sustainability; Sociology Department; Jonathan M. Tisch College of Civic Life; Office of the Dean of Arts and Sciences, Toupin-Boulwell Fund; Science, Technology & Society (STS) Program; Tufts Dining; and the Urban and Environmental Policy and Planning Department.

Tufts
UNIVERSITY