

Table of Contents

---

Chapter 1: Changing Perspectives on the Environment

Chapter 2: Resources, Environment, and Economic Development

Chapter 3: The Theory of Environmental Externalities

Chapter 4: Common Property Resources and Public Goods

Chapter 5: Resource Allocation Over Time

Chapter 6: Valuing the Environment

Chapter 7: Cost–Benefit Analysis

Chapter 8: Pollution: Analysis and Policy

Chapter 9: Ecological Economics: Basic Concepts

Chapter 10: National Income and Environmental Accounting

Chapter 11: Energy: The Great Transition

Chapter 12: Global Climate Change: Science and Economics

Chapter 13: Global Climate Change: Policy Responses

Chapter 14: Greening the Economy

Chapter 15: Population and the Environment

Chapter 16: Agriculture, Food, and Environment

Chapter 17: Nonrenewable Resources: Scarcity and Abundance

Chapter 18: Renewable Resource Use: Fisheries

Chapter 19: Forests and Land Management

Chapter 20: Water: Economics and Policy

Chapter 21: World Trade and the Environment

Chapter 22: Policies for Sustainable Development