Refugees and Asylum Seekers Across the Globe

As of December 31, 2013, 0.9 million Syrian refugees and asylum seekers are dispersed across the globe in over 100 countries. They can be divided into four categories: those who have registered with UNHCR, those who have registered with governments, those who are located in informal settlements, and those who remain unregistered.

As of December 31, 2013, over 2.1 million Syrians have been internally displaced as a result of the Syrian civil war. The chart below represents those displaced either internally or externally as a result of the Syrian civil war. The chart below shows that as of November 2014, UNOCHA states on its website that 9.65 million people have been displaced by the conflict in Syria.

The chart below demonstrates that the number of Syrian refugees and asylum seekers fleeing the conflict in Syria is on the rise. As of December 31, 2013, over 3 million Syrians Asylum Seekers and Refugees were spread across the globe in over 90 countries throughout every continent except Antarctica as denoted by the colored lines. The line color and width symbolize the amount of Syrian Refugees per country. However, the actual amount of people and countries are likely different as people may have traversed through more than one country and may not have registered with UNHCR.
