Ensure Access
- First, go to hirshlibrary.tufts.edu
- Then, select the resource you want to use.
- The first time you will be prompted to enter your Tufts username/password. This informs the resource of your Tufts affiliation.
- Look under “Quick Links” for some popular resources, including: PubMed, Lexicomp, and Dynamed.

Search for Articles
- Go to hirshlibrary.tufts.edu
- Start with a database. PubMed is the most popular.
- To search for a database by name or subject area, click on “Databases” then search.
- Most databases provide easy access to the full-text of articles we own access to through Tufts.

Find eBooks
- Go to hirshlibrary.tufts.edu
- Click on “JumboSearch.” This limits your search to items Tufts owns.
- In the search bar, type in the name of the book or the subject area you want
- Under “Availability” check off the filter “Full Text Online”
- Under “Resource Type” check off the filters “Books” and “Book Chapters.”

Find an Article's Full Text
- Go to hirshlibrary.tufts.edu
- Click on “Google Scholar”
- Copy/paste the title of the article in quotation marks and search
- If full-text is available, a link will appear to the right-hand side of the results

Virtual Workshops
- The Hirsh Library periodically offers virtual workshops via Zoom.
- These are open to all Tufts students, faculty, and staff.
- See the upcoming schedule and register: bit.ly/hhslopenworkshops

Research Assistance
The liaison librarian to pre-clinical medicine, Christina Heinrich, is available to meet with you for independent research projects or for information needs related to your coursework. Use the library’s website to schedule a research consultation.

Contact Us
- Hirsh Library, generally
  - Email: hhsl@tufts.edu
  - Chat/instant message: hirshlibrary.tufts.edu/research/ask-us
- The Medical Liaison, Christina Heinrich
  - christina.heinrich@tufts.edu