

The LASTING Project

Friedman School Board of Advisors

April 25, 2022

Leading A Sustainability
Transition
In Nutrition
Globally

The impact of diets

Global burden of disease and poor
nutrition

Environmental footprint

Labor and livelihoods

Rising cost of food

The gap

Our goal

Putting diets at the core of science and policy to improve all four pillars of sustainability simultaneously

Social

Environment

Health

Economic

Our team

Nicole Tichenor
Blackstone
Assistant Professor

Sean Cash
Associate Professor

Nicola McKeown
Scientist 1, HNRCA

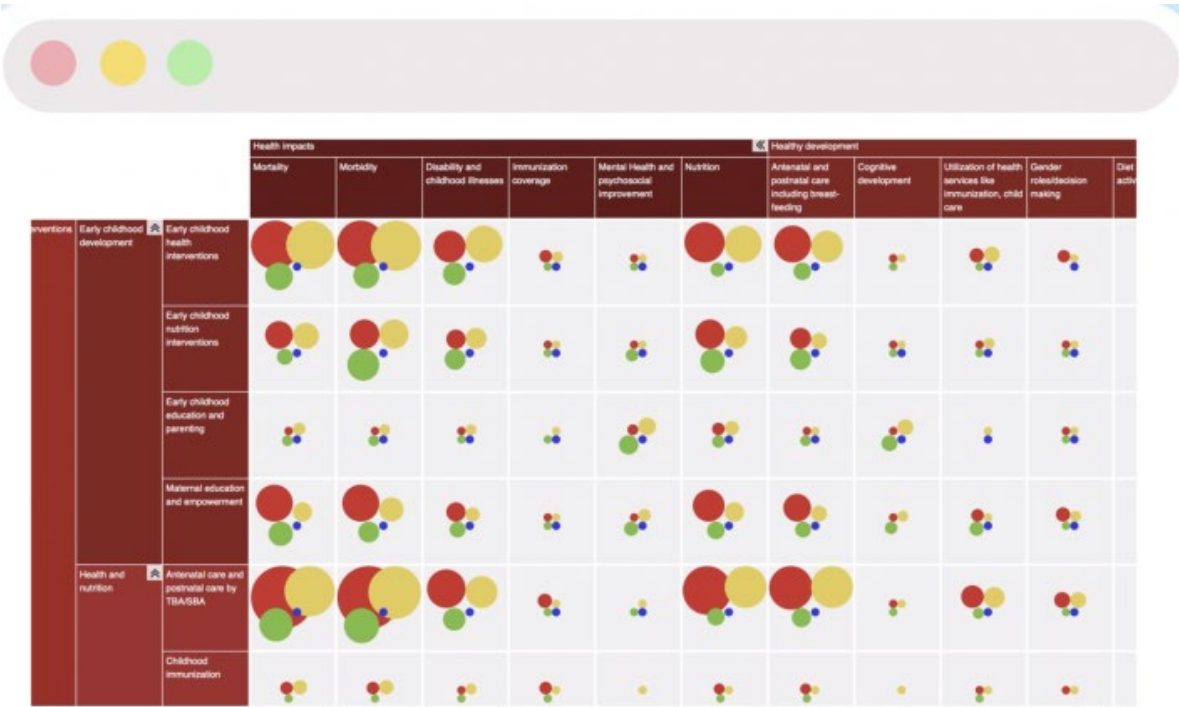

Patrick Webb
Professor

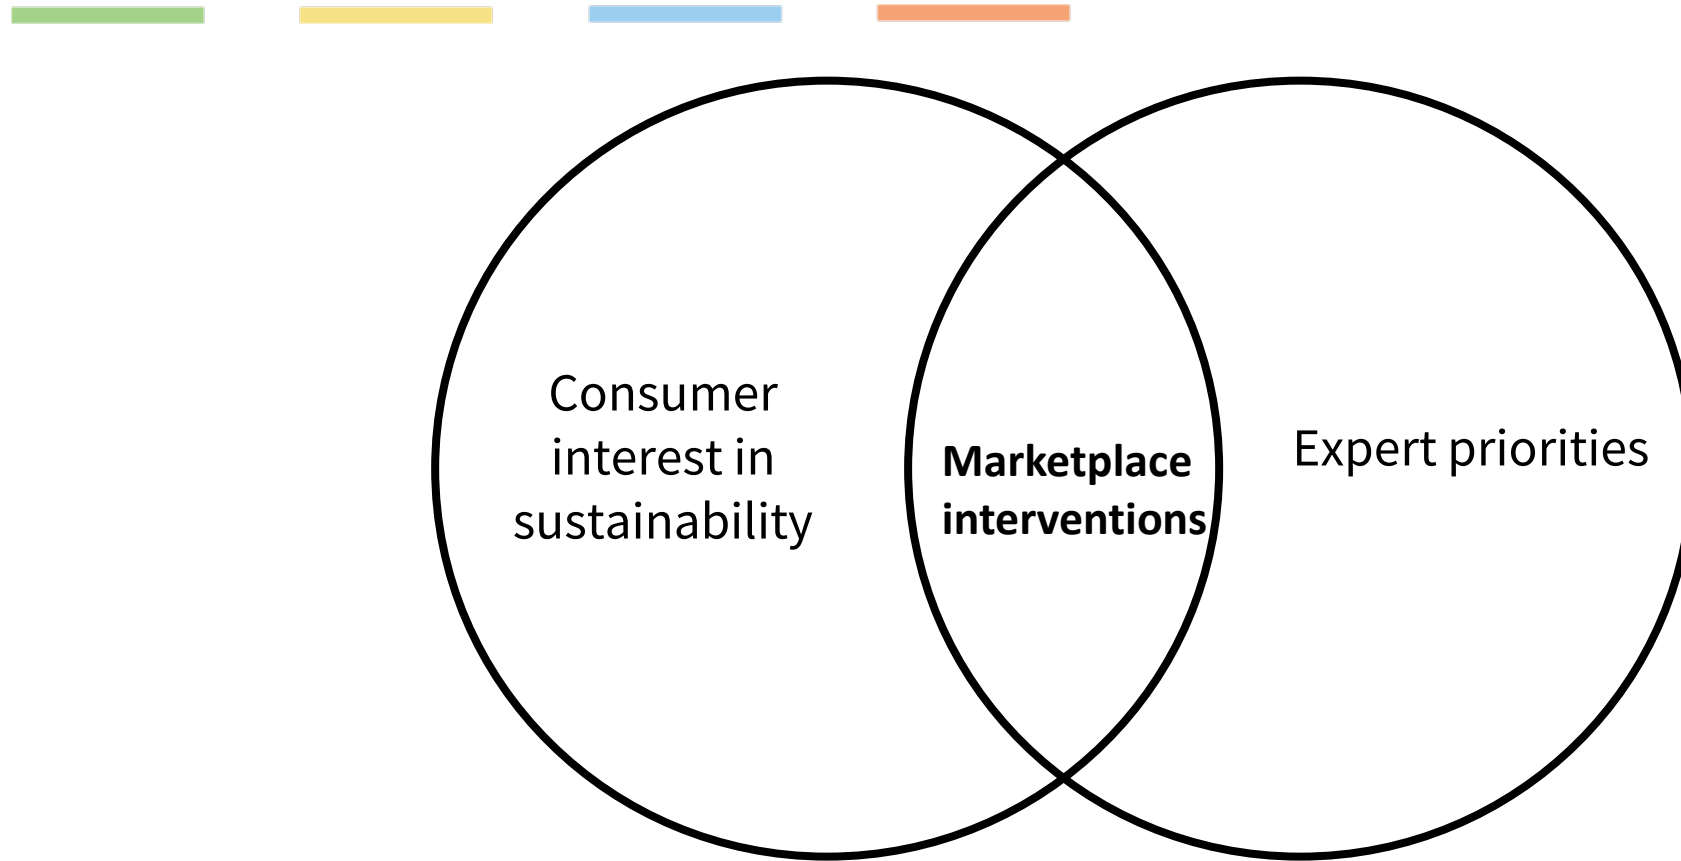

Fang Fang Zhang
Associate Professor

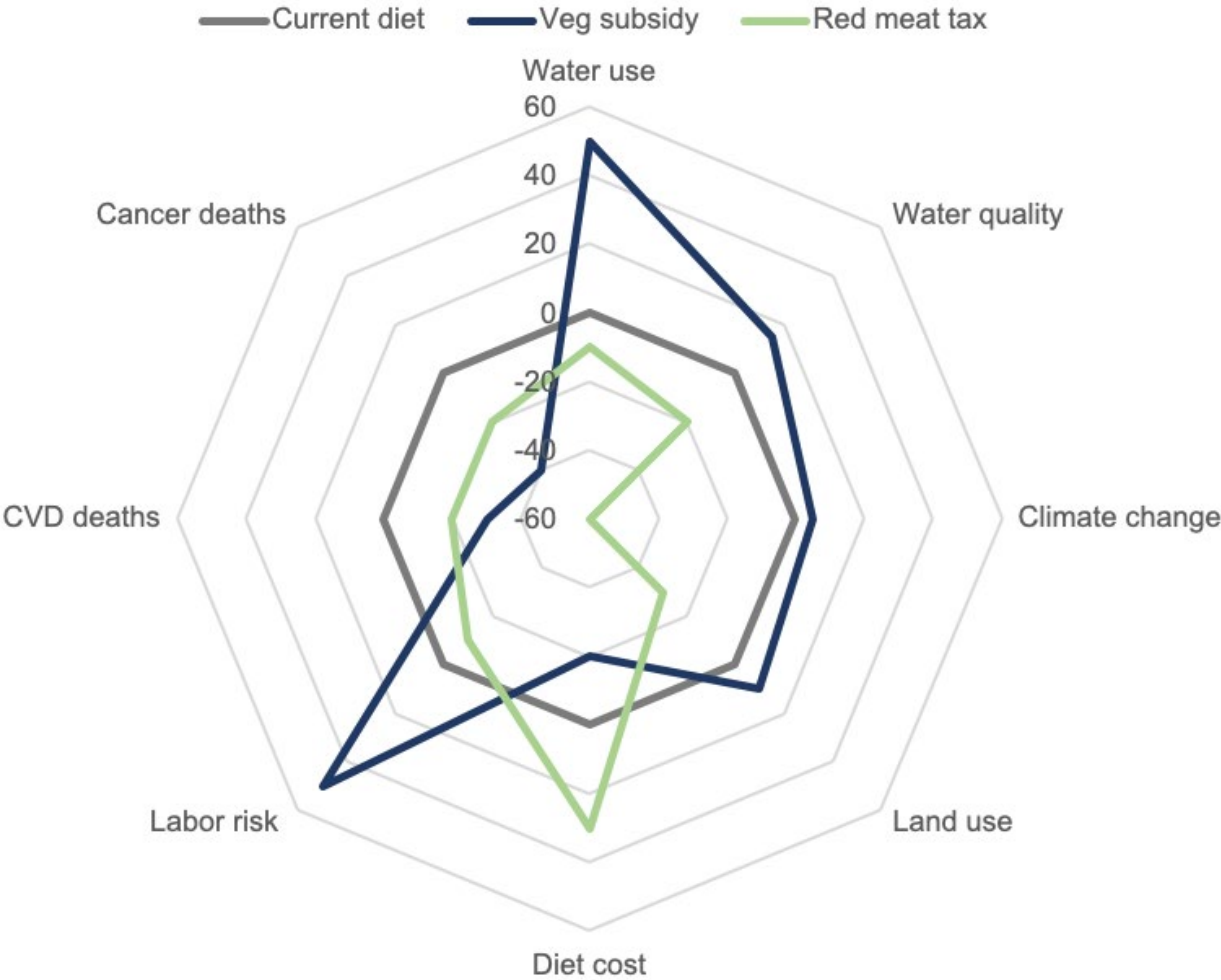

Aim 1 - Identify the gaps

Aim 2 – Assess intervention “sweet spots”

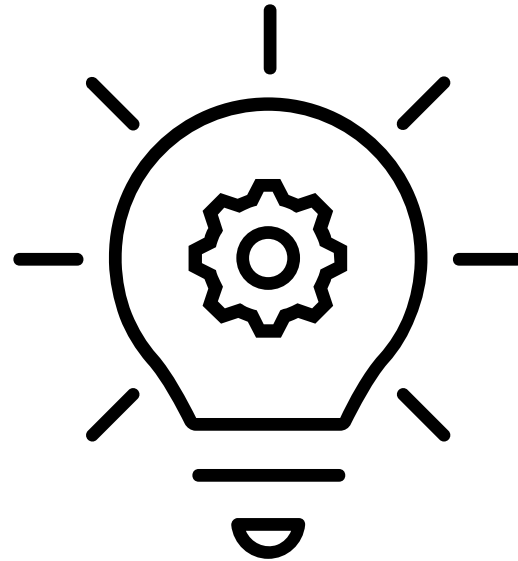

Aim 3 – Estimate the impacts of shifting diets

Aim 4 – Position Tufts at the center of the conversation

Gerald J. and Dorothy R.
Friedman School of Nutrition Science and Policy

Graduate Programs
Arts & Sciences
and Engineering

Trainee engagement:

- 4 Postdoctoral Fellows
- 1 PhD & 5 MS students (and counting)

Thank you!

We welcome your questions
and feedback

Contact me at:

Nicole.Blackstone@tufts.edu

LASTING