

SMFA Studio Policy Violation Guidelines

This document outlines the actions which the Studio Team may take in order to keep studio users accountable for not adhering to Studio policies.

Types of Studio Policy Violations

The following types of actions either violate the Tufts Student Code of Conduct or create inequity or hazardous conditions in the studios. Definitions marked by * are from the Tufts Student Code of Conduct.

- Cleanup issues: Disregarding established cleanup procedures, which are shared by studio managers and/or faculty and may be posted in the studios
- Misuse of equipment: Using equipment in a way that is potentially harmful to the studio user or is likely to cause damage to the equipment
- Misuse of consumables: Using studio consumables excessively or not for their intended purpose
- Property Damage and Vandalism*: Unauthorized conduct that is reasonably likely to or does cause damage, destruction, or vandalism of Tufts property
- Safety violations: Disregarding posted signage or instructions from studio managers or faculty or participating in reckless behavior that endangers the studio user or other studio users
- Theft and Possession of Stolen Property*: Unauthorized taking of property or possession of property that a studio user knows or reasonable should know was obtained through theft
- Unauthorized access/entry*: Entering an access-restricted area by circumventing established security procedures (e.g., using another person's credentials, tailgating authorized individuals into a restricted area)
- Unauthorized removal of equipment from studios: Taking equipment from one studio to another, or to private studios, without permission from the studio manager.
- Violation of other studio policies as stated in the studio-specific policy documents

Accountability Actions

The following steps will be taken when studio users violate studio policies in any of the ways listed above.

1. First violation: A reminder letter will be sent to the studio user via email, and relevant faculty may be included in the email. The Studio Team may require studio user to be re-trained, correct the situation, or take financial responsibility, depending on the circumstances.
2. Second violation: A notice of warning will be sent to the studio user via email, which the studio user can choose to accept or contest through the Student Conduct Resolution Procedure, facilitated by Student Life.

3. Any additional violation: Studio users will receive formal notification of the initiation of the Student Conduct Resolution Procedure. This process may result in formal sanctions above a warning and could include restrictions on studio use and access.
